

Baxter

The day Brooke and John adopted Baxter a year and a half ago was one of the highlights of their life. They instantly fell in love with this big bundle of joy. Soon after, they were told he had kidney failure and their mission became to make his last days here happy and peaceful, which they accomplished. Baxter lived a happy and charmed year because these two wonderful people. He left this earth a couple weeks ago. He will always be remembered and loved.

